Sir William Robinson,

NEWBY, Baron^t.
Member of Parliament
 F O R T H E
CITY of YORK.

S I R,

W Hatever has the least Tendency to the Honour or Advantage of the City of YORK, I'm sure cannot fail of your Acceptance: You have always showed your Love and Affection to it by a continued adherence to its Interest; and upon all Occasions that offer'd, readily concurr'd with, and promoted, not only with your Assiduous Endeavours, but with your generous Benefactions; every thing proposed for retrieving its ancient Splendour and Glory; from which it is most unhappily fallen.

This

The DEDICATION.

This City is not only the Metropolis of the North of that part of Great-Britain called England, but famous likewise for its Antiquity, having been the Residence of one Roman Emperor, and the place of the Nativity of another; and always during the Roman Government here, one of the most Noted Colonies in this Island: And since that time, hath ever been remarkable and eminent in History, sometimes for the Residence of our Kings, and their holding of Parliaments here, and no less for its being the Title of the second Son, as Duke of York, of the Kings and Queens of this Realm; and has ever been accounted the second City in England, its Mayor being Honoured with the Stile of Lord, which none besides the great and opulent City of London enjoyeth in this Kingdom. And formerly it had its Court of Chancery, with four Terms in the year, for all Business on the North side of Trent, as now at Westminster for all England.

And as to the Ecclesiastical State, It has been an Arch-Bishop's See, of that Antiquity, that it has disputed the Primacy with that of Canterbury: But however that may be, its Juris-

Jurisdiction was anciently much larger, extending from the Confines of the River Trent over all Scotland.

But all things here are subject to time and Chance! The not long since devouring Civil War, and Unnatural Rebellion, as it made prodigious Waste in this Kingdom, it had most Malignant Effects and influences on this Ancient and Loyal City, as its Surrender to the then irresistible force of the Rebell Army, had on the whole Nation; and ever since that fatal Epocha, its Grandure has gradually declin'd and sunk.

This Ancient and Honourable City you have several years represented in Parliament, as your Uncle Sir Metcalf Robinson Baronet had done before you; and you will find not only your self, but that worthy Gentleman your Son, inrolled in the Catalogue of the Honourable the Lord Mayors of this City: You Sir stand likewise in the City Rolls, recorded for your good Deeds to it, Your Bountifull Gifts to the Charity School, to the Manufacture Society, in order to the Setting the Poor on Work, for your Annual Benefit to the Citizens in general, both in permitting your ground to be exposed exposed to a publick Horse Race, and at your own Charge Building a Bridge for its convenience, which with its being in the Neighbourhood of this City (where the best Accommodations of all things necessary for Strangers are not wanting) make it one of the most agreeable Races in the Kingdom.

I cannot forbear to add Sir, That all those Good and Generous Qualities are no less promising in the Worthy young Gentleman your Son our last Lord Mayor, who beyond his Years, with great Application, has attained such a Knowledge in the Affairs and Government of the City, as has engaged the Affections, as well as Admiration of the Citizens, and which may make him no less Usefull and Considerable than his Father.

Upon these Considerations it is, that I have made Choice of you Sir for this Dedication, as well as to do my self the Honour of Subscribing,

Your most Obedient, and

most Humble Servant,

York, March 2d.

1719.

Francis Hildyard.

T O

Robert Fairfax, Esq;
Alderman of the City of York.

S I R,

TO Publish the Antiquities of the City of T O R K, without some Acknowledgment how Propitious Your Name and Family has been to this Ancient City, would be injurious and ungrateful to its Benefactors : That generous and tender Regard of the then Lord Fairfax (altho' at that time in a detestable Rebellion against his Sovereign) to the Preservation of that Ancient and most Magnificent Structure the Cathedral of this City, when he Commanded the Parliament Army at the Siege of it, by making it Death to level a Gun against it, notwithstanding it was then a Refuge and Shelter to the Loyal Citizens who defended it against Him, and his saving the City, as well as its Cathedral, from being made an Heap of Rubbish, ought always to be remembred with a due Respect.

The noble Lords, the Inheritors of his Name, Honour, and Estate, were for many Years Representatives in Parliament for the County of T O R K, and always had a particular Respect to the Honour and Interest of the City : And your self, Sir, after many Years faithful Service to the Crown and Nation, in Your Discharge of the several Commands You had in the Sea-Service, and after having had the Honour of serving his Royal Highness Prince G O E R G E, our then most Gracious Queen's Consort, as one of his Honourable Council at the Admiralty Board, out of the Affection You bore to it, chose to make Your Retirement in this City, and become a Member of the Corporation, where You had not long resided, before the Citizens became acquainted with, and sensible of, those good Qualities, which shewed both the Christian and the Gentleman, and in consequence of which You was, upon our late Gracious Queen A N N calling her last Parliament, most deservedly chosen one of the Representatives for the City; in which Honourable Station You was ready to apply Your self to answer the Occasions of every particular Citizen.

Upon the first Vacancy in the Bench You was chosen to supply it, and in your Turn was EleEd Lord Mayor for the Year 1715, a year, which will be Memorable in our English Annals, and which by the Rebellion then on foot against his Majesty King George, required the greatest Prudence, Courage and Steadiness in the Chief Magistrate; All which were so Apparent in your discharge of that Office, as made every thing safe and ease under your Administration, and procured you the Honour of a Letter of Thanks from his Majesties Secretary of State.

Thus Sir, in your several Stations, you have always had the Satisfaction and Applause of dischargeing your Duty: And may Heaven Bless and Prosper all your good Designs and Endeavours for the Publick Good and that of this City in particular; and may all who enjoy the happy Benefit and Influence of them, be as ready upon all Occasions to Express their Gratitude and Acknowledgements, as ever shall be.

Sir,

Your most Humble, and

most Obedient Servant,

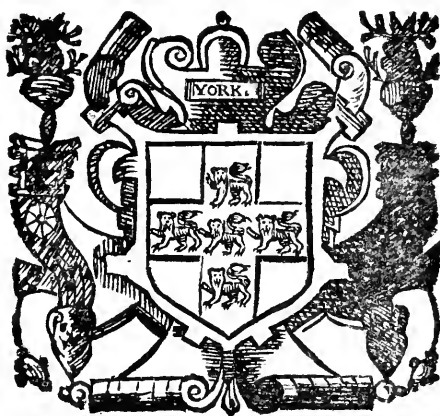

York, March 2d.

But

2 The Antiquities of YORK-City.

But seeing there is no certain Account of Things extant in this Nation, before the coming of Julius Caesar hither, we may observe that then it was called Is-Urium Brigantium, as being the Chief City of the Brigantes, who Inhabited these Northern-Counties of the Realm.

Likewise by the Romans it was called Eboracum. Uracum, or Eboracum, as derived from the River Ure, (by the Saxons named Onse) which watereth and divideth it into two Parts. Camb. Brit. 701.

Afterwards by the Saxons it was named Ebor-wic. Ebor-wic, or Eofor-wic, (Ebor signifying a Wild-boar, and Wic, a Place of Retreat) as probably a Refuge from wild Boars, which then might have been in the Forest of Gawtres hard by.

Lastly, by the English at this day it is called YORK: as some way extracted from the word Ure or Onse.

After the Romans had left Britain for a Prey to barbarous Nations, this City suffered her part of all those Miseries. C. Br. 704.

And about the End of the Scotish and Saxon Wars, it was but a small Shadow of a great Name, for when Paulinus Preached to the English Saxons in Anno Dom. 627. it lay so desolate, that there remained not so much as a Chappel in it, for King Edwyn to

to be Baptized in : He being necessitated to build a little Oratory of Wood for that purpose : (It seems that the Temple erected in it, in Honour of the Goddess Bellona, was then demolished.) C. B. 704.

After this, The City flourished notably for a time, under the Saxon's Dominion, untill the Danes defaced it with exceeding great Ruins. Especially in the Year 867. The Walls were so battered and shaken by reason of continual Wars, that the Two Kings of Northumberland, viz. Osbright and Ella, whilst they pursued the Danes easily brake into the City ; who, in the very midst thereof (being both of them slain, after a most bloody Battle) left the Victory unto them. Camb. Brit. 705.

But King Athelston won it per Force out of their hands, and quite over-threw the Castle which they had there fortified. Yet for all this it was not free from Wars in the succeeding times, whilst that Age was fatal for the Destruction of Cities. C. Br. 705.

In Anno Dom. 1067. (1st of William I.) When the Sons of Swenæ had landed in these Parts, with a Danish Fleet of 240 Sail, the Normans lying in Garrison here, and kept two Forts within the City, fearing lest the Houses in the Suburbs might stand the Enemy in stead to fill up the Ditches, set them on fire, which by reason of the Wind, spread through the City, thus a burning, the Danes brake in upon them, put the Normans to the Sword, and by Decimation Executed every Tenth man. Whereupon K. William Conq. was so incensed with Revenge, and being suspicious that the Citizens had taken part with the Danes, as by Fire and Sword he almost destroyed the whole City. And the better to keep them in awe, he raised a most Castle. strong Castle. C. Br. 705. 702. D-s Day B. 6.

After these troublesome Storms were over (notwithstanding the Danger it lay in, both from Scots and Rebels) the City rose again of it self, and began to Re-flourish.

But in the Reign of K. Stephen, it caught exceeding great Harm by Fire, wherein were consumed the Cathedral, St. Mary's Abbey, and other Religious Houses. C. Br. 706.

Walls. In the Reign of K. Edward I. The Citizens Fenced it round about with new Walls, with Towers and Bulworks set orderly in divers Places. C. Br. 706.

And the Four Barrs, seem to have been Rebuilt or Repaired, in the time of King Edward the Third.

Its Tribute. In the time of K. Edward Confess. This City paid to the King the Annual Tribute of 53 Pounds by Weight. And to William Conq. an Hundred Pounds per Annum: As appears by Doomsday-Book. B. H. 290.

Thence as far as the Outgange in the Moor called Þhorzkys More.

Thence beyond Knaresmire as far as Haydale Crosse, in the way which leads to Bishop-Thorpe.

Thence beyond the Water of Onse as far as the Crosse standing against the Grene-Dykes in the way leading to Fulford.

Thence from the River Onse on the North, viz. From the Bridge in Le-Fleting which is called Little-Ing so extending by the Dyke, and a Meere against the Spittle-Well, by the way as far as the Abbot of S. Maries Miln.

And thence as far as the Magdalen-Spytel the High-way which leads to Clyfton.

And so as far as the Mill of John de Roncliff.

And thence as far as the Watergate in the Outgange upon the Moor.

And so by the Meere, as far as the White-Stane-Crosse upon Astill-briggs.

Thence beyond the Water of Fosse, against the Water-Mills of the Abbot of St. Mary extending to the Crosse upon Hemorth-moor, (upon which Moor is a Common of Pasture for all the Citizens of York in those Crosse beyond the Kennyndykes.)

Item, From the Crosse upon Hemorth-moor as far as the Theef-brigg, and so extending as far as the Crosse against the Brigg, from beyond St. Nicholas Miln, in the Highway leading to Kexby. And

And from that Cross as far as the Cross in the Grenedykes, and the Gallows of St. Leonard.

And thence to the wooden Cross in the way which leads to Fulford against Algarth-like, and so extending as far as the Spring called Hawkes-Well, directly to the Water of Onse, where the Citizens of York have a Common of Pasture. C. B. 196.

23d. of Henry the Sixth.

There was another Boundary taken of the City of York, on the 15th of November in the 23d Year of Henry the VI. which is as followeth, viz. Beginning from the River of Onse on the North, as far as a certain Bridge in Le-Fleting called Little-Ingg, extending by a Dyke and a Meere, against the Spittle-well, by the way against the Abbot of St. Maries Mill.

Another Boundary.

And thence as far as the Magdalen-Spittle in the High-way which leads to York, as far as Clyfton.

And so as far as the Mill of one John de Roucliff (but now of the Heirs of Sir William Ingleby, Knight.)

And thence by the way against the Gallows of the Abbot of St. Maries YORK, (where was anciently a Water-gate in the Outgange which leads to the Forrest of Gawtres, as far as a certain wooden Bridge there) there) and so by the Meer as far as White-stone Cross upon Astel-Bridge.

And so by the great Stone as far as the Water of Fosse, always descending on the West-side of the River, as far as the Abbat of St. Maries Water-Mills aforefaid.

And thence beyond Fosse-dyke against the said Mills on the South, extending as far as a certain place, where the wooden Cross stands upon Heworth Moor, against the way leading to Stockton.

So from thence against the Cross of Stone at the West end of the Town of Heworth, as far as the Street.

And so by the way as far as the Cross, in the way which leads to Osbaldwyke.

So proceeding in the High-way which leads to Kexby, as far as the way against the Bridge from beyond the Mill of St. Nicholas.

And so returning from the said Cross against the said Miln, by the way leading to the Greene-dyke, against the Close of the Hospital of St. Nicholas aforefaid.

And thence as far as the Cross in Greene-dykes, against the Gallows of St. Leonard.

And thence beyond Tylmyre, by the way as far as the Cross of Wood, in the way leading to Fulford against Hallgarth-sike, and so extending directly as far as the Water of Onse, and beyond Onse, as far as a certain Cross called Hyddale Cross, in the way leading to the City of York as far as Bishop-Thorpe.

And

And thence directly beyond the Fields (called the New-Fields crossing Knaresmire, from beyond the Gallows there standing on the South-side) as far as the Outgange leading to the Moor called YORK-Moor; and thence by a certain Rivulet as far as the Bridge at Holgate Town-end, descending thence by a Ditch there on the West, as far as Flete-bridge in the Bishop-field on the West side of the River Ouse. B. 217.

The City's Government.

IN the time of the Romans possessing this Island, it was one of their principal Colonies, or Municipal Towns, which either enjoyed its proper or special Officers, Laws and Privileges; or else the same Privileges which Rome it self had.

And here was the Station of that beloved Legion of Severus, called Sexta Victrix; (which at first the Emperor Hadrian brought out of Germany, Anno Chr. 121) as appears by a Piece of the Emperor Severus his Coin; on the Reverse whereof is, COL. EBORACUM LEG. VI. VICTRIX. C.Br. 702. Seld. Ti. 28.

Moreover, The said Emperor Severus had his Palace here, and also his Tribunal of Justice, for the well Government of the Province, who (after his Return from his Northern Expedition against the Caledonians in Scotland) died here Anno Dom. 212. where his Body was by his Soldiers carried forth into a Place Westward of this City (near Akham) and there bestowed in a funeral Fire, and honoured with solemn Justings. C. Br. 703.

Mayor and Bayliffs.

It was time out of mind Governed by a Mayor and Three Bayliffs, yet the Style of the Corporation in those Days sometimes ran, Civitatis Ebor. as when K. Henry III. granted to the Citizens of YORK, That none of them should Implead or be Impleaded before Himself, or any of his Justices out of the City, for Lands or Tenements, which they held within the City, or the Liberties of the same, or of any other Trespas; but only before the Mayor and Bayliffs. B. 37.

Lord Mayor

Sword.

In the 12th of Richard II. (1389.) The King appointed the supreme Officer to be called Lord Mayor, and gave his Sword wherewith himself was girt to be born before him.

Mace.

And in the 16th of Richard II. The King gave the first Mace to be born before the Lord Mayor and Bayliffs, as another Ensign of Authority.

Justices of the Peace.

Likewise about the same time, The King granted to the Mayor and Twelve Aldermen for the time Being, or to Four, Three, or Two of them, with the said Mayor, full Power to hear and determine all Things,
and

and Matters within the City and Liberties thereof, as His Justices of the Peace, (of Labourers and Artificers) have without the same.

May 18. in 19. of Richard II. 1396.

King Richard II. by his Charter then bearing Date at Westm. under the Privy-Seal, City made a County of it self. for the great Affection which he bore to the City of YORK, and to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Community of the same, and in Consideration of their singular Loyalties and good Services, done to him in times past, did grant to the said Citizens, their Heirs and Successors for ever; That the said City, with its Suburbs and Precincts, according to the Terms and Bounds limited in a certain Roll, which is within the Body of the County of YORK, be separate from the County of the same, and be thenceforth exempt both by Land and Water, and be a County of it self, and be called, The County of the City of YORK, for ever. And that the said Citizens, their Heirs and Successors, have within the same Limits, these subscribed Liberties and Franchizes, viz.

That every Mayor of the City, for the time being, and as soon as he is Elected, shall be the King's Escheator in the City Escheator. of YORK, and Suburbs, and Precincts of the same.

Two Sheriffs

And the Citizens, their Heirs and Successors for ever, shall have instead of the Three Bayliffs, Two Sheriffs of the said County of the City who shall be Annually chosen after this manner, viz. That the Citizens and Community shall every Year, from amongst themselves, chuse two fit Persons to be Sheriffs; who, after the said Election, shall make due Oath before the Mayor within the City, and then their Names shall be returned under their Common Seal into the King's Chancery; So that the said Escheator and Sheriffs do answer the King in his Exchequer, all the Issues and Profits of their respective Offices. And that these Sheriffs of the City shall hold their County Court every Monday in each Month, as the other Sheriffs of the Counties within the Kingdom use to do. Or as the Bayliffs of the City before them were wont to hold.

Conuſance
of Pleas.

Furthermore, The King granted to the Citizens, their Heirs and Successors for ever, That none shall Implead or be Impleaded for any of their Lands and Tenements, held within the Liberties of the City, or for any Trespas done within the same, before any of the King's Justices without the City, but only before the Mayor and Sheriffs thereof. But if the Plea cannot be Determined before them, then at the Sute of the Plaintiff, it shall be Tryed before the King's Justices Itinerant within the City. Also that the Mayor and Sheriffs shall have Cognizance of Pleas of Trespases, Covenants, and Contracts within the City and Suburbs thereof; as the said Mayor and Bayliffs before time used to have.
and

Likewise, He granted that the Mayor and Citizens shall have Comusance of all Pleas of Affizes, Novel Disseizen and Mort Dancester for their Lands and Tenements within the City, as well before the King's Justices of both the Benches, as before his Justices of Affize or Itinerant, or any other of his Justices or Ministers authorized to take Affizes, before the Mayor and Sheriffs in the Guild-Hall of YORK.

Also, He granted to the Citizens, their Heirs and Successors, to have all the Fines, Issues, Forfeitures and Amercements appertaining to Justices of Peace within the Liberties of the City, to support the Reparation of the Bridges thereof, and other Emergent Burdens.

Fines.

And, That the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Community shall for ever have the Forfeiture of Victuals; as of Bread and Ale, and of other Things which do not pertain to Merchandizes.

Also he granted, That the Mayor and his Successors, for the time being, shall have Sword of State. born before them out of the King's Presence, that Sword which he before had given them, or any other Sword which they pleased, pleased, to be erected within the Precincts thereof.

Serjeants of the Mace. And, That the Serjeants of the Keys of the Mayor and Sheriffs, for the time being, shall carry their Keys of Gold and Silver adorned with the King's Arms; as well in the King's Presence, as in the Presence of his Royal Consort, or of his Mothers, &c. within the City, &c.

Moreover, He granted to the Citizens for ever, That neither the Seneschall or Marshall of his Royal Household, nor Clerk of the Market thereof, shall from thenceforth in his Presence or Absence, Enter or Sit within the Liberties of the City, so as to Exercise their Offices therein, &c.

Purveyors. And, That none of the King's Purveyors of his Castles, or Officers of Victuals, shall take any Prizes or Victuals out of the Goods of the Citizens, throughout the City against their Free-will, unless it be for the King's necessary Victuals; for which a reasonable Price shall be payed.

Coroners. Lastly, He granted to the Citizens, their Heirs and Successors, That the Coroners of the City and their Successors for the time being, shall for ever Exercise their Offices both in the King's Presence or Absence, as they used to do time out of mind.

Ainestly. In the 26th Year of Henry the VI. The Ainestly was annexed to the City.

The

The Kings of England, by their Royal Charters granted and confirmed to the Mayor and Commonalty of the City, and their Successors for ever, all the Liberties which they held by Prescription; and all and singular the Parishes, Towns, Granges, and Hamlets following, viz. St. Mary-gate, Bowtham, Clifton, Roccliffe, H-worth, Grangefield, Osbaldwick, Tang-hall, Hallfield, Westington, Gate-Fulford, and Water-Fulford, as Parcels of the County of the City, and as such always to be annexed to the same. And that all and singular the Inhabitants therein shall be subject to the Laws, Ordinances and Constitutions of the City, and under the Government and Direction of the Mayor and Commonalty thereof. And that the Mayor, Escheator, and Sheriffs of the County of the said City shall for ever have full Power, Authority and Jurisdiction, within the said Parishes, Towns and Hamlets, as they lie within the County of the City.

And that the said Mayor and Commonalty of the City, and their Successors shall have the Goods and Chattels of Felons, Fugitives outlawed, and Wayved Persons; and of Felons de se, Deodands, Forfeitures, Escheats; and of all Fines, Forfeitures and Amercements before Justices of the Peace, arising within the said Precincts, without any Account to be made thereof to the King.

Like-

Justices of Peace.

Likewise, That the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the City, for the time being, shall be Justices of the King's Peace, within the said County of the City; (whereof the Mayor, Recorder, and Two of the senior Aldermen shall be of the Quorum.)

Freedom
from Juries.

Furthermore, The King granted that no Citizen or Inhabitant within those Towns belonging to the County of the City, shall be put upon any Forreign Recognisance, Jury, Inquisition of Assizes or Attaint, but only to serve upon Sheriff, or Coroners Inquests, within the City, or County of the same.

Walls Repair.

And forasmuch as the City Walls are liable to Decay, and cannot be kept in Repair without the Contribution of the Inhabitants, Authority was granted to the Mayor, Recorder and Sheriffs, or the major Part of them, from time to time as they shall think necessary, to Assess and Tax all and singular the Inhabitants and Residents within the City of T O R K, (as well within the Liberty of St. Peter, as elsewhere within the Precincts of the City) in any Sum of Money towards the Repairs of the said Walls, Stone-Bridges, and of the Wharf called, The King's Stayth; and in Case of Refusal to pay, That they shall Levy the said Sum Imposed by Distress and Sale, &c.

And

And, That the Commonalty of the City Commonality, shall consist of the compleat Number of 72 or Common-
Persons, viz. Eighteen out of every of the Council.
Four Wards of the City, to be Elected out of the most discreet and able Citizens, by the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and of those who have been Sheriffs of the City, and these together shall be called, The Common Council of the City. And that within 15 Days space after the Death, Removal, or Election of Recession of any Common-Council-Man, a Common- then the said Common-Council shall congre- Council-man gate in the Guild-Hall, before the Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriffs, who then and there, upon their Oaths (or the major Part of them) shall Vote, Nominate, Elect and Declare Three of the most able and discreet Citizens within the same Ward, in which the said respective Person that made the Vacancy did reside; and shall present their Names to the Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriffs, and to those who have been Sheriffs; who all, or the major Part of them upon their Oaths, shall Elect and Nominate One of the said Three Persons so presented to them, to be of the Common-Council, in the place of the Party so Dead, or Removed, which said Common-Council of the City, for the time being, shall have their Votes in the Election of the Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriffs, and in all and singular the other Acts, Matters and Concerns of the City, as the Common-Council used to have. C And

Sheriffs
Elected.

And, That the said Common-Council shall Yearly, on the Feast of St. Matthew Apostle, assemble in the Guild-Hall, before the Mayor Aldermen and Sheriffs, to whom they shall, upon their several Oaths, Nominate, Elect, and Present Four of the discreetest and ablest Citizens, (which have not been Aldermen nor Sheriffs before) that Two of the same Four, may be Elected Sheriffs, from the Feast of St. Michael the Arch-Angel for the whole Year ensuing by the Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriffs, or the major Part of them, who within three Days after such Presentation of the Four Names to them made, shall in the Guild-Hall Nominate Two to serve as Sheriffs, and by them to be Sworn on Michaelmas Day.

Aldermen
Elected.

And when any Alderman happens to die, be removed, or recedes, That then the said Common-Council, for the time being, within reasonable time after, shall congregate in the Guild-Hall, on a certain Day by the Mayor appointed, before the Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriffs, to whom they shall, upon their several Oaths, nominate and present Three able Citizens, out of which, they may Nominate and Elect one for an Alderman, who within Ten Days after such Presentation made, shall in the Guild-Hall be Elected, and Sworn by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs or the major Part of them.

Sir Edmund Cooper the third time Lord Mayor by the King's Order; but not Sworn.

This Year Cliffords Tower, being exceeding ruinous, was re-edified and strengthened with Fortifications. Sir Francis Cobb Colonel, was Governour thereof, who with his Lieutenant Colonel, Major, and Captains, had their Lodgings there during the Siege of the City.

June the sixth, The Queen, with all her Train, left York.

December 13th, John Miers Attorney was chosen Alderman, in stead of John Vaux deceas'd.

1644. Sir Edmund Cooper, 4. William Tayler.
Thomas Nayler.

Sir Edmund Cooper Knight, the fourth time Lord Mayor. After the Rendition of the City to the Enemy, was displaced; and Thomas Hoyle put in his stead.

March 6th James Brook Grocer was chosen Alderman in stead of Thomas Hodgson deceas'd.

This Year on the 23d of April, the Scots faced York at a distance, on the West side of the River Ouse.

And on the 29th day, they, with the other Forces of the Enemy, consisting of three Armies, under the Conduct of the three Generals, viz. the Earl of Manchester, Alexander Lesley Earl of Leaven, General of the Scots; and Ferdinando Lord Fairfax: which three Armies were reputed to be near 50000 Fighting Men. They laid close Siege to the City, so that a Quarter of Veal and Mutton was sold for sixteen Shillings a piece;
Beef

Beef at four Shillings per Stone; a Pigg at seven Shillings; A Hen at four Sillings; Eggs at three Pence a piece; and fresh Butter at two Shillings and eight pence per Pound; yet the Souldiers and Citizens were well Contented, and Couragious, having no want of Salt Meat, nor of any sort of Grain, which was Sold at Reasonable Rates; and of Wine, Beer, and Ale, there was Plenty.

May the second, the seven Wind-Mills on Herworth-Moor were Burnt by the Enemy: and the next day the Water-Mills, called Abbey-Mills, and the Wind Mill adjoyning, with the Pepper Mill, were also Burnt.

June the eighth, being Whitson Eve, a Cannon Bullet weighing sixty Pound, shot from the Mill Hill above Saint Lawrence Leyes without Walmegate Barr, was shot through Saint Sampsons Church Steeple, and there taken up: And also in the time of the Siege, the Spire of Saint Dionis Church was shot through with a Cannon Bullet.

During the Leaguer, the Enemy shot well-nigh forty hot Fiery Bullets out of their Mortar-pieces, which Providence so directed, as that most of them were quenched in the River Fosse; only one, flew a Maid in Thursday Market, and a shell of that fell into Master Clerkes the Writing-masters Chamber there, which brake down a Sparr of the House, and cast down a Couple of Ling upon old Mistrifs Clerke, which knocked her under the Table, being almost fourscore years of Age, so that the Table did preserve her from hurt; save only that there was a Scarr without a Wound.

✂ The Sectarian Army thinking to abolish the Service of the Common Prayer in a Military way, which by Disputation they were not able to perform, made choice of Trinity Sunday, being the 16th of June, to put in Execution their Hellish Design, and in time of Common-Prayer at the Minster, did blow up Saint Maries Tower at the North-East Corner of the Mannor; and at the same time, they made a Battery, and a Breach in the Wall lower down in Saint Maries Gate, whereat they endeavoured to enter; but the Valour of the Citizens, and White-Coats of the Marquess of New-castles own Regiment, being led on by their Commanders, above forty of the Enemy were slain in the Garden and Bowling green, and about two hundred and fifty taken Prisoners. In which Conflict, that Valiant Citizen Master Samuel Breary (third Son of William Brearey Alderman Deceased) and Lieutenant Colonel of a Company of 250. stout Volunteer Citizens, being shot with a poysoned Bullet into one of his Arms, four days after dyed. At the same time was Colonel Sir Phillip Byron, and Colonel Huddleston, two Valiant Commanders slain. After this Defeat, the Enemy was much daunted, (Cromwell, that Monster of Men, being a Colonel in that quarter:) Upon this Defeat, our Souldiers would jeer the Enemy, and tell them, They were stealing the Kings Apples, but they were taken in the Mannor.

July the first, in the Morning, the Enemy raised their Siege, to give Prince Rupert Battle, who was sent by the King to Relieve the City; and on the next day fought him on Marston Moore, being the greatest Battle in all the Warrs: where the Prince was Defeated, yet not till he first made all the Enemies Generals run: There were 7000. at least, slain on both sides; and the most eminent Persons that were Slain on the Princes side, were Sir William Wentworth, Sir William Lampton, Sir Thomas Metham, Colonel Eury, and Colonel Slingsby: upon which Victory, the Enemy did draw before York again, and sat down before it.

July the 16. After this long Siege, during which, some Houses in Walmgate near the Gate were pulled down, by reason the Enemy had Mined to the middle Jaumb of that Barr; which was discovered by one that the Perdues in Saint Georges Close (then under the Command of the Governour of Cliffords Tower) took, who brought him to the Tower, and being strictly examined by the Lieutenant Colonel in Cliffords Tower, confessed, That they were Mining, and that they had Mixed to the middle of the Barr, and shewed where they began to Mine, being at a little House on the North of the said Gate, which Sir Thomas Glemham, that Gallant and Vigilant Governour prevented, by Mining above them, and pouring water in upon them. He also caused a new Wall of Earth to be made cross the Street, a good distance within the Gate, for the better Security of the City.

Most of the Suburbs of the City was burnt down, except a few Houses without Mckle-gate Bar, which were preserv'd by the Royal Fort. Monk Bridge, and the Bridge at Lathrope Postern were broken down.

The City it self, together with the Forts and Tower, five and thirty Pieccs of Ordnance, three thousand Arms, five Barrels of Powder, and other Ammunition was yielded up to the Enemy by the Governour Sir Thomas Glemham, with the Consent of the Lord Mayor and Magistrates, upon Honourable Articles; but never perform'd to the Dishonour of them that broke them.

Thomas Hoyle Alderman, and one of the Burgessees in Parliament, got into Sir Edmund Cooper the Loyal Lord Mayor's Place: And upon January the 13th, procured John Geldart, Stephen Watson, Tho. Dickinson, Robert Horner, Leonard Thompson, and Simon Coulton, to be chosen Aldermen, for their Disaffection, in the Places of Sir Edmund Cooper, Sir Robert Belt, Sir Roger Jaques, Robert Hemsworth, William Scott, and John Myers, displaced and disfranchised for their Loyalty to the King.

It is remarkable, That when the Enemy advanced with their whole Cannon (which carried a 60 Pound Bullet) from Gate-Foulford, to plant it on Heslington Hill; the Lieutenant Colonel of the Tower, being then upon the Platforme, commanded David Guillome, a Loyal Citizen, the Cannoneer's Mate, to travers the Guns, and to level them according to Art, and giving Fire to a Demy-Culverin, did that Execution, which made the Enemy run all from their Cannon, where they lay all that Day betwixt Foulford and York.

In August this Year the following Petition was presented to the then Lord Chancellor.

To the Right Honourable
EDWARD Earl of Clarendon
Lord High Chancellor of England.

The Humble Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of YORK.

Humbly Sheweth,

THAT the City of YORK is an ancient City to which several Kings of England have been graciously pleased to grant divers Privileges and Immunities by several Charters, as Testimonies of their singular Favour to that Corporation; And amongst others, King Richard the Second, by his Royal Charter dated the 11th of February in the 16th Year of his Reign, did grant unto the Lord Mayor and Commonalty. That the same City, Subburbs, and Liberties thereof should be a distinct County of it self, And that the Justices of Peace for the County of YORK should not intermeddle within the same: Since which time King Henry the VI. by his Royal Charter dated the 11th Day of February, in the 27th Year of his Reign, for Enlarging the Liberties of the same City, was graciously pleas'd to annex the Weapontake of Ainsly (being a Place adjoining) to the County of the said City, and thereby granted, That the Mayor and Aldermen of the said City should be Justices of Peace within the said Weapontake as well as within the City: Which said Grants have since been Confirmed, as well by our late Sovereign Lord King Charles the First of happy Memory, as other his Majesties Predecessors, and ever since (being now above 200 Years) the Mayor and Aldermen for the time being only (and no other) have been Justices of the Peace of the said Weapontake.

A. Dom. Lord Mayors.

Sheriffs.

Weapontake, and have holden their General Quatrer Sessions of the Peace within the said City, the remotest Part of the said Weapontake not being above Eight Miles distant from the City.

That nevertheless some Gentlemen, (viz.) Sir Thomas Slingsby, Sir Miles Stapleton, James Moyser, and Richard Rowndell, who are not Free of this City, have by your Lordship's Warrant been lately put in Commission to be sworn Justices of Peace within the said Weapontake.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly beseech your Lordship not to take away their Ancient Rights and Priviledges, but be pleased to supersede the said Commission of Peace, that so your Petitioners may enjoy their Liberties formerly granted to them, as hath been accustomed for 200 Years past, without Interruption by Strangers.

And your Petitioners shall humbly Pray, &c.

The Lord Chancellor's Answer to the Petition.

22d. of August, 1661.

I Shall not by any Act or Order of mine violate or infringe any Priviledges of the City, and if their Case be such as is suggested in their Petition, I shall supersede the Commission issued out; but because Persons of Quality have confidently averred to me, that the Practice hath been otherwise till the Beginning of these late Troubles, I will hear what can be said of both sides before I determine, and to that Purpose I do appoint to hear upon the second of November, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, what can be alledged of either side, and shall proceed accordingly. Of which let Sir Thomas Slingsby and the other Persons concerned have Notice.

CLARENDON.
